SOCIETY

Engagements.

Col. and Mrs. George Harvey of New York announced the engagement of their daughter Dorothy to Lieut. Marcellus H. Thompson, U. S. A. Lieut. Thompson is of the third generation of Kentucky-born West Pointers. His grandfather, Col. James Thompson, was of the class of 1851 and was brevetted for bravery in the civil war. His father, Col. John T. Thompson, was of the class of 1882, is now assistant chief of ordnance at Washington, and is noted for his inventions. Lieut. Thompson was of the class of 1903 at Harvard and was graduated at West Point in 1906. He is now stationed at Fort Washington, Md., where he is serving as adjutant in the Coast Artillery.

The engagement of Miss Frances Ramsey, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Ramsey of Alameda, Cal., and Ensign Herbert Whitwell Underwood, U. S. N., has been announced.

The latter is attached to the U. S. S. Maryland, therefore the wedding day will not be named until the movements of his ship become more definite than present conditions warrant. It is probable, however, that it will take place some time in August or September.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watson of 52 West 52d street, New York, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mai Duncan Watson, to Frederick T. Frelinghuysen of New York. Miss Watson has lived the greater part of her life in Europe, where her parents were prominent in the winter colonies in Nice and Cannes. She was introduced to society last December when Mr. and Mrs. Watson gave one of the most brilliant balls of the season.

Mr. Frelinghuysen is a son of Theodore Frelinghuysen and a grandson of Frederick T. Frelinghuysen, who was Secretary of State under President Arthur. He was graduated from Harvard in 1908, and is a member of the Union, Knickerbocker, Tuxedo and Harvard clubs. He is identified with the Tuxedo colony and for some years has made his home with his aunt, Miss Lucy Frelinghuysen, whose sister is Mrs. Charles L. McCawley of this city. While no day has been arranged for the wedding, it will take place some time in September at the Episcopal church in Islip, L. I. The wedding reception will follow at Meadow farm, the country place in Islip which Mr. Watson recently leased from Harry E. Hollins.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ramsey of Cleveland, Ohio, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Lieut. Marcellus H. Thompson, U. S. A.

THEIR ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

MISS DOROTHY HARVEY, daughter of Col. and Mrs. George Harvey of New York, and a frequent guest at home of Speaker Clark.

LIEUT. MARCELLUS H. THOMPSON, U. S. A.

Buck-Norris.

Last Monday night at St. Paul's M. E. Church, Kensington, Md., the marriage took place of Miss Lydia Ruckel Norris and Mr. George Burton Buck, Rev. Harry G. Spencer, assisted by Rev. Dr. Weede and Rev. Dr. Hummer, officiating. In the presence of a large company of relatives and friends, the church was blanketed with palms, fruit blossoms and lilies.

Mr. Eppa R. Norris, Jr., brother of the bride; Mr. Wilson Townsend of Kensington, Mr. Thomas Greelmore of Portsmouth, Va., and Thomas Wilson of Washington, D. C., were ushers.

Miss Lucile Jones of Chevy Chase, the maid of honor, wore light blue tulle and white lace and yellow tulle, and carried yellow roses; Miss Anna Duehay of Washington, who wore pink tulle and light blue tulle; Miss Emma Burg, also of Washington, nille green, combined with white lace and pink tulle; Miss Mary Chapin of Kensington, who wore white with pink ribbons; yellow tulle combined with white lace and light blue tulle; Miss Virginia Buck of Baltimore, white combined with lace and red tulle, all carrying sweet peas, were the bridesmaids. Little Miss Mary Ella Norris, cousin of the bride, was flower girl, and wore white lace with trimmings of pink and carried a basket of pink roses. The ribbon bearers were Ella, Maude and Emma Norris, sisters of the bride, and little Miss Almer King, mother of the groom, who wore white with pink ribbons. The bride, who came in with her father, wore ivory satin train. The no-dice was made entirely of lace embroidered in pearls.

Her tulle veil was held with a cap of duchesse lace, trimmed with orange blossoms and pearls. She carried a shower of lilies of the valley and roses. Mr. and Mrs. Norris held the reception at the residence of the groom's parents. The house was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers. Mrs. Norris, the mother of the bride, wore wistaria satin tulle and cream lace, assisted in receiving, wore light blue satin and white lace.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck left that night for their honeymoon travels, and their future home will be in New York.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Samuel F. Addison, Miss Sallie Micon, Mr. Irving Buck and daughter, Mrs. John Pickner, Miss Annie and Alice Bougher, Miss Virginia Buck, Miss Clara Hooten, Mrs. J. Douglas, and son of Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Doniphan of Alexandria, Va.; and Mrs. Thomas Greelmore of Portsmouth, Va.

Miss Lydia Norris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eppa R. Norris of Kensington, Md., and Mr. George Burton Buck of Kensington, Md., were married in St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church by Rev. Mr. Spencer last Monday night. Mr. Lewis Meriam of Kensington was best man, and the bride was attended by four bridesmaids and four flower girls.

A reception followed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Buck, parents of the groom, because of sickness in the home of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Buck will reside in New York city near Broadway and 154th street.

Burgess-West.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Aloysius Church Thursday last at 4 o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss Henrietta L. West and Mr. Courtland J. Burgess. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Brooks. The altar was beautifully decorated with roses and orange blossoms. The bride was becomingly gowned in ivory satin, with a tulle veil, caught with real orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. The attendants were Miss Josephine West and Mr. Charles G. West, brother and cousin of the bride. The ushers were Mr. J. Edward West, Mr. Felix A. West, Mr. Lewis W. West, brothers of the bride, and Mr. William H. White, Mr. and Mrs. Burgess left immediately for an extended trip north. The bride's traveling suit was of wistaria cloth, with hat to match. They will be at home to their friends after May 15, at 200 Bladensburg road.

In Foreign Cities.

One of the most important of the after-lunch weddings in London was that of Sir Frederick Bridge, C. V. O., organist of Westminster Abbey, and Miss Marjory Wedgwood Wood, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Wood of Staffordshire.

The ceremony was performed at noon in the tiny chapel of St. Faith, by the Dean of Westminster, assisted by Canon Wood, uncle of the bride, who was chorister of the abbey sang throughout the ceremony.

The bride wore a draped costume of bluish-colored charmeuse with lace and touches of pale blue on the bodice. Her deep purple hat was trimmed with ostrich plumes.

A luncheon followed the ceremony and later Sir Frederick and Lady Bridge left for Bath, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Seven bridesmaids attended Miss Sheelah Brooke, daughter of the late Sir Arthur Brooke, Bart., of Colbrook, Park and Lady Brooke, Miss Brooke and Mr. Henry Mulholland, son of Lord Dunleath, were married at St. Paul's, Knightsbridge.

These attendants wore yellow charmeuse dresses with tunics of cream lace, and Dutch caps of lace. They carried bouquets of daffodils.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white and silver brocade, the corsage of chiffon with a high model collar of silver lace and a court train of cloth of silver.

Her veil of rare old Limerick lace was loaned for the occasion by a friend. A reception followed and later the newly married couple left to spend their honeymoon in New Forest and Brittany.

King George, Queen Alexandra and a number of royal princesses were present at the opening of the grand opera season at Covent Garden.

Queen Alexandra and all the ladies in her party wore black dresses, heavily jeweled, with the exception of Princess Maud, who was in white satin with diamond ornaments.
